STORY LINE

As curious students, we embarked on a journey to explore the vibrant city of Montréal, seeking inspiration and adventure...

We found ourselves lost and unsure about where to start our exploration.

We decided to create a YouTube channel that would document our full-day activities in Montréal, serving as a source of inspiration for visitors!

CUSTOMER JOURNEY

Meet Marissa, a lost tourist in Montréal, clueless about where to begin her exploration...

She discovered our YouTube channel, got captivated, and planned her own day based on our content...

And she became an advocate for Supadiscover!

Challenge

In this fast-paced world, we recognize the need for a dynamic approach that embraces change, encourages collaboration, and ensures swift adaptation to shifting market demands.

Mission

Our Agile Project Management methodology includes iterative development and continuous improvement.

We maximize productivity, enhance customer satisfaction, and maintain a competitive edge in the vibrant world of travel entertainment.

NAME	GOAL	METRICS
SUPADISCOVER is a channel named after its concept of strong wants and needs to discover places wherever we go. When speaking about discovering places, we are 6 and are currently living in Montreal for a short period. Despite living here or perhaps anywhere else in certain time constraints, we believe we deserve the word SUPA (from Super) as we love managing days and planning our activities. We love doing that so much that we want to spread what we have planned and experienced with people who are like us.	At SUPADISCOVER, we are a group of 6 international students from France who spend just 2 months in Montreal. Despite this, we SUPADISCOVER aim to create the best memories amongst ourselves in Montreal. We also aim to share that with a public who have a similar spirit, and would want to discover new places in Montréal like us – by our videos the subscriber would get to explore, discover fun activities, and get inspired to eat and drink well in Montreal within a friendly budget.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Views</li><li>• Watch Time</li><li>• Engagement</li><li>• Subscribers</li><li>• Click-Through Rate (CTR)</li><li>• Traffic Sources</li><li>• Demographics</li></ul>
TARGET GROUP	BIG PICTURE	PRODUCT DETAILS
Our target group is supported by 3 different personas. Despite of some differences, our personas share some common features: they are all young adults in Montreal who are in their mid 20's, with decent financial support and a common eagerness to explore the city as whole with a pinch of nature, experience fun activities and discover good places to eat and drink.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• As a viewer I want a content that corresponds to my mood</li><li>• As a viewer I want a format of video that fits with my lifestyle</li><li>• As a viewer I want to have exchanges &amp; interactions with members of my community</li><li>• As a Content creator I want to create unique content and be recognized by a community</li><li>• As a Content creator I want to be able to see my community's engagement and metrics</li><li>• As a Content creator I want to exchange with my community</li></ul>	Our Youtube channel consists of two different videos with two different styles of spending your days in Montreal. Each video will tackle different themes on going out, hence the places and activities done differ. Each video will also describe how and why we chose a certain place and our ideas will be evaluated by everybody in SUPADISCOVER.

Opus Luminum

Opus Memori La famille Cadavera, a le regret de vous annoncer que la visite de l'exception... //GLITCH//

6 janvier 1938, je suis seul au manoir depuis le début de l'hiver. Une sombre histoire me tient éveillée au plus fort de la nuit. D'après mes recherches, il semblerait que le manoir ait été construit sur des terres sacrées, propices à la magie noire, un art interdit qui serait à l'origine de la richesse de la famille Cadavera. Le manoir lui-même aurait servi de sanctuaire pour le culte nommé Opus Luminum. C'est au détour des couloirs de l'aile nord que j'ai découvert ce bureau des plus étranges.

Lors de mes rondes nocturnes, j'entends des cris qui me glacent le sang. Je les attribue à Céleste, ex-majordome, qui serait parti vivre en campagne mais qui, selon les rumeurs, aurait perdu la vie dans cette pièce lugubre qui m'obsède.

La pièce est complètement défendue aux majordomes et mes insomnies me poussent à vouloir braver cet interdit. J'espère pouvoir résister à son appel...

//GLITCH// Cette pièce est malheureusement interdite au public.

--- Ce scénario est la suite d'Opus Luminum. Venez revisiter ou découvrir l'une des expériences les plus immersives de Montréal.
